NOTICE OF ALLOWANCE

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jens Jenkins on February 10, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the specification, paragraph 59, please delete [co-pending] on line 4; and

Also in paragraph 59, after –April 7, 1999,--, please insert “which is now U.S. Patent 6,745,245,”.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

It was not found to be taught in the prior art of determining whether access will be granted bases on the source of the script and associated permissions that are defined in access control data structures that are independent of the script.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Goudreau, US 2004/0213224 discloses of permission code that indicates a class of service that the packets are entitled to demand.

Koved et al, US 2002/0161996 discloses of signed remote applets that are permitted access to system resources that were not permitted for applets without signatures.

Those following references were cited in the parent application 09/287,666 that is now abandoned and will not be discussed, but rather are cited to have a consistent record between the instant application and the parent application 09/287,666.
